

Danyah Miller - Artistic Director Wizard Presents

We really love bringing our shows to South Mills Arts - it's one of our favourite venues, not least because as we enter the building the whole team makes us feel so welcome and at home. It's not only the theatre team but also the audiences are so warm and responsive to our work. We can't wait to be able to return and we're longing to share more story adventures with you....