

Scott Ritchie – Producer and Director Scott Ritchie Productions

As the Director of Scott Ritchie Productions and a Producer who always looks forward to bringing my shows and team to South Mill Arts, it is always a pleasure to work with such a dedicated team at this lovely arts venue. As a company who return, we know we will always be looked after and supported by everyone in the building at every step of the way. I always look at the venue as an important part of any show I am scheduling and make sure we fit a visit into our touring schedule.
